

Kickapoo Tribe in Kansas Police Department

Position: Patrol Officer

Are you looking for opportunity? We formally invite you to submit your application to be part of our law enforcement family. Our department is a small department and nestled in approximately 12,000 acres of countryside in Brown County, Kansas.

The Kickapoo Tribal Police Department wants the right candidate to excel in their interests of law enforcement, be it in traffic enforcement, drug investigations or good old fashion community policing.

The Kickapoo Tribe of Kansas has a progressive Head Start Program and a K-12 school.

Officers are encouraged to interact with our community members and children. Kickapoo Tribe in Kansas also has the Golden Eagle Casino within our patrol area.

The Kickapoo Reservation boasts many scenic views, an abundance of country living in the communities around us, and easy travel to larger metropolitan areas.

The Kickapoo Tribe in Kansas Police Department is currently seeking applications from post-certified officers from KLETC or FLETC or those eligible for reciprocity. Eligible candidate must live within 30 miles of the Law Enforcement Center. All necessary LEO items will be provided along with a take-home vehicle. Please submit your resume for application at <https://www.ktik-nsn.gov/programs/human-resources/> or by contacting Kickapoo Tribe in Kansas Human Resources Department at (785) 486-2042 for further questions or information.

Salary- start $16.00 per hour

Indian Preference:

Preference in filing vacancies is given to qualified Indian candidates in accordance with Indian Preference Act of 1934 (Title 25, USC, Section 472). Verification must be submitted with the application if claiming Indian Preference. Consideration will be given to non-Indian applicants in the absence of qualified Indian Preference eligible.