PUBLIC NOTICE

The Kickapoo Tribal Council has revised and approved Title 12-Election Code. The Tribal Council is committed to providing the public with easy access to public information on Code revisions and decisions. For your convenience, copies of Title 12 are available at the Tribal Government Center. If you are unable to obtain a copy of this Code from the Tribal Office, upon appropriate request, special considerations can be made to have a copy delivered to you.

The Tribal Council welcomes public comments on these revisions and persons interested in commenting have ten (10) days from today's date to provide written comments. Any interested person may participate in the process by commenting in writing on any revision to this code during the applicable public comment period and all comments should be directed to the Tribal Council at the address above. Comments should be specific and contain data or references to support conclusions or recommendations.

If you have any questions, please contact the Tribal Council at 785-486-2131.
